CAKES AND GIFTS FOR PRISONERS

This Christmas season we are given the opportunity to remember those in need. Two ways we can do that is by providing cakes for the prisoners' Christmas party and by packing shoeboxes with specific necessary items that will be given to the prisoners. The RECH Foundation is hoping to get 3,750 boxes. There is a Christmas tree in the Narthex with shoeboxes underneath it. Each box has a list of items that can be included. Please include devotional literature so that the recipient will hopefully learn more about the True Reason for Christmas. Cakes should be put in the empty church office by the main offices and boxes can be placed back under the Christmas tree. All cakes and boxes need to be turned in to the church before noon on Friday, December 12th.

BULLETIN DEADLINE

Please make note that next week the bulletin will be printed on Tuesday, November 25. Please have all information, especially regarding the calendar, to the office or to bessmalin@gmail.com by Monday, November 24. Thank you!
